Now comes Plaintiff Ilyana Rosario, by and through undersigned counsel, and for her Complaint against Shurtape Technologies, LLC (“Shurtape” or “Defendant”), states and alleges the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a “collective action” instituted by Plaintiff as a result of Defendant’s practices and policies of not paying its non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees, for all hours worked, including overtime compensation in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 201-219, as well as a “class action” pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 to remedy violations of the Ohio Minimum Fair Wage Standards Act (“OMFWSA”), R.C. § 4111.03.

4. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because Defendant conducts business throughout this District and Division and because a substantial part of the events and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this District and Division.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

13. Defendant manufactures various types of tape, school supplies, and moving supplies at its manufacturing facilities.

14. Defendant employed Plaintiff between October 2007 and November 2020 as a manufacturing employee at its Avon, Ohio manufacturing facility.

15. Other similarly situated employees were employed as manufacturing employees at Defendants manufacturing facilities located in Ohio, North Carolina, and Florida.

16. Defendant classified Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees as non-exempt employees.

17. Defendant paid Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees on an hourly basis.

18. Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees frequently worked over 40 hours per week.

19. Plaintiff worked on average 52 hours per week.

(Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked)

20. Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees were only paid for work performed between their scheduled start and stop times, and were not paid for the following work performed before and after their scheduled start and stop times: a) changing into and out of personal protective equipment such as a mask, steel toe boots, earplugs, gloves and/or safety glasses; b) getting tools and equipment that were necessary to perform their manufacturing work such as a zephyr knife, O-rings, seals, and/or blades; c) walking to their assigned area of the manufacturing floor; and/or d) performing their manufacturing work.

21. The time Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees spent a) changing into and out of personal protective equipment such as a mask, steel toe boots, earplugs, gloves and/or safety glasses; b) getting tools and equipment that were necessary to perform their manufacturing work such as a zephyr knife, O-rings, seals, and/or blades; c) walking to their assigned area of the manufacturing floor; and/or d) performing their manufacturing work was an integral and indispensable part of their principal activities, was required by Defendant, and was performed for Defendant's benefit.

22. Changing into and out of personal protective equipment such as a mask, steel toe boots, earplugs, gloves and/or safety glasses; b) getting tools and equipment that were necessary to perform their manufacturing work such as a zephyr knife, O-rings, seals, and/or blades; c) walking to their assigned area of the manufacturing floor; and/or d) performing their manufacturing work are intrinsic elements of their principal activities and ones with which Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees cannot dispense if they are to perform their principal activities.

23. The time Plaintiff and other similarly-situated employees spent donning their personal protective equipment was not only an integral and indispensable part of their principal activities, but it was also required by Defendant, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, and was performed for Defendant's benefit in that it helped keep the production floor safe and helped promote a more safe and efficient manufacturing process.

24. Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees were not paid for time spent a) changing into and out of personal protective equipment such as a mask, steel toe boots, earplugs, gloves and/or safety glasses; b) getting tools and equipment that were necessary to perform their manufacturing work such as a zephyr knife, O-rings, seals, and/or blades; c) walking to their assigned area of the manufacturing floor; and/or d) performing their manufacturing work.

25. The amount of time Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees spent on this required and unpaid work amounted to approximately 15 to 30 minutes per day.

26. As a result of Defendant's practices and policies, Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees were not compensated for all of the time they worked, including all of the overtime hours they worked over 40 each workweek.

(Failure to Include Bonuses In Overtime Calculations)

27. Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees were also paid appreciation bonuses.

28. Defendant announced to Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees that it would pay bonuses in advance of paying the bonuses.

29. The appreciation bonuses were announced as an incentive for hard work by Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees.

30. Defendant also had a custom of paying bonuses to Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees.

31. At all times relevant herein, however, Defendant failed to include the bonuses paid to Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees in their regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating their overtime compensation.

32. As a result of Defendant's failure to include bonuses in the calculation of overtime compensation, Plaintiff and other similarly-situated employees were denied significant amounts of overtime compensation.

(Failure to Keep Accurate Records)

33. Defendant failed to make, keep and preserve accurate records of the unpaid overtime worked by Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees.

(Defendant Willfully Violated the FLSA)

34. Defendant knowingly and willfully engaged in the above-mentioned violations of the FLSA.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

35. Plaintiff brings Count One of this action on her own behalf pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated who have been, are being, or will be adversely affected by Defendant's unlawful conduct.

36. The class which Plaintiff seeks to represent and for whom Plaintiff seeks the right to send "opt-in" notices for purposes of the collective action, and of which Plaintiff herself is a member, is composed of and defined as follows:

All former and current non-exempt manufacturing employees of Shurtape between February 18, 2018 and the present.

37. Plaintiff is unable to state at this time the exact size of the potential class, but upon information and belief, avers that it consists of at least one thousand persons.

38. This action is maintainable as an "opt-in" collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) as to claims for unpaid overtime compensation, liquidated damages, attorneys' fees and costs under the FLSA. In addition to Plaintiff, numerous current and former employees are similarly situated with regard to their claims for unpaid wages and damages. Plaintiff is representative of those other employees and are acting on behalf of their interests as well as her own in bringing this action.

39. These similarly situated employees are known to Defendant and are readily identifiable through Defendant's payroll records. These individuals may readily be notified of this action and allowed to opt in pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), for the purpose of collectively adjudicating their claims for unpaid overtime compensation, liquidated damages, attorneys' fees and costs under the FLSA.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

40. Plaintiff brings Count Two of this action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and (b)(3) on behalf of herself and all other members of the class ("the Ohio Class") defined as:

All former and current non-exempt manufacturing employees of Shurtape between February 18, 2018 and the present.

41. The Ohio Class is so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. Plaintiff is unable to state at this time the exact size of the potential Ohio Class, but upon information and belief, avers that it consists of at least one thousand persons.

42. There are questions of law or fact common to the Ohio Class, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) whether Defendant failed to pay overtime compensation to its manufacturing employees for hours worked in excess of 40 each workweek; and
- (b) what amount of monetary relief will compensate Plaintiff and other members of the class for Defendant's violation of R.C. § 4111.03 and § 4111.10.

43. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of other members of the Ohio Class. Named Plaintiff's claims arise out of the same uniform course of conduct by Defendant, and are based on the same legal theories, as the claims of the other Ohio Class members.

44. Named Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Ohio Class. Her interests are not antagonistic to, but rather are in unison with, the interests of the other Ohio Class members. The named Plaintiff's counsel has broad experience in handling class action wage-and-hour litigation, and is fully qualified to prosecute the claims of the Ohio Class in this case.

45. The questions of law or fact that are common to the Ohio Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members. The primary questions that will determine Defendant's liability to the Ohio Class, listed above, are common to the class as a whole, and predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members.

46. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Requiring Ohio Class members to pursue their claims individually would entail a host of separate suits, with concomitant duplication of costs, attorneys' fees, and demands on court resources. Many Ohio Class members' claims are sufficiently small that they would be reluctant to incur the substantial cost, expense, and risk of pursuing their claims individually. Certification of this case pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 will enable the issues to be adjudicated for all class members with the efficiencies of class litigation.

47. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the foregoing allegations as if fully rewritten herein.

48. Defendant's practice and policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees for all time worked and overtime compensation at a rate of one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for all of the hours they worked over 40 each workweek violated the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201-219 and 29 CFR § 785.24.

49. By engaging in the above-mentioned conduct, Defendant willfully, knowingly, and/or recklessly violated the provisions of the FLSA.

50. As a result of Defendant's practices and policies, Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees have been damages in that they have not received wages due to them pursuant to the FLSA.

COUNT ONE
(Fair Labor Standards Act Violations)

52. Defendant's practice and policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated manufacturing employees for all time worked and overtime compensation at a rate of one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for all of the hours they worked over 40 each workweek violated the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, 29 C.F.R. 778.111.

53. Defendant's practice and policy of failing to include bonuses earned by Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees in the calculation of their overtime compensation violated the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201-219, 29 C.F.R. 778.208-.209.

54. Defendant's failure to keep records of all of the hours worked each workday and the total hours worked each workweek by Plaintiff and other similarly-situated manufacturing employees violated the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201-219, 29 C.F.R. 516.2(a)(7).

55. By engaging in the above-described practices and policies, Defendant willfully, knowingly and/or recklessly violated the provisions of the FLSA.

56. As a result of Defendant's practices and policies, Plaintiff and other similarly-situated employees have been damaged in that they have not received wages due to them pursuant to the FLSA.

COUNT TWO
(Violations of Ohio Revised Code 4111.03)
